How to get to Kongyan Wind Power Station

Overview

Shanghai, Fengxian in Yandex Maps: get driving and public transport directions, easily find and select locations based on ratings and reviews. Great place to chill and hang out as you enjoy the great expanse of the Rift Valley. I was really blown away by the massive wind turbines. The farm on the northern part of the Ngong' Hills, near Kenya's capital, Nairobi has a capacity of 25. This unique attraction draws numerous visitors due to its rarity in East Africa and offers an educational experience alongside its picturesque. Ngong' Power Station is the only wind farm that is connected to the national grid. Today, we celebrate 25 years of humanity at its best.
