Is it illegal to purchase stolen photovoltaic panels

Overview

The FTC's Impersonation Rule, effective April 2024, also makes it illegal to pose as or claim endorsement by government agencies, with early enforcement actions already shutting down scam operations (FTC). The consequences of solar panel theft and vandalism can be severe, both financially and environmentally. According to a study by the National Renewable Energy Laboratory (NREL), the average cost of solar panel fraud has become a growing concern in the United States, leaving many homeowners stuck with hidden fees, inflated energy bills, and contracts they never fully understood. Paradoxically, the states most likely to do this are some that would greatly benefit from solar power, like Oklahoma, Kansas, and Nebraska. Another incident of solar.
