Is the live broadcast of dismantling photovoltaic panels a scam

Overview

Your social media feed is probably full of them: ads promising free solar panels, guaranteed savings, or special government programs that'll pay you to go solar. Some even claim you'll get a check in the mail just for installing panels on your roof. If it sounds too good to be. While reputable companies can help you save money with clean or solar energy improvements, scammers offer more than they can deliver. Always look for businesses you can trust - like Accredited Businesses using the BBB Seal. The. Scams, schemes and straight-up fraud abound in the dark underbelly of an otherwise light-filled industry. Be aware of solar energy scams - everything from scammers pretending to be affiliated with the government or utility company to businesses misrepresenting the cost of improvements. I just read a thread in this sales subreddit about scammy salesmen knowingly ripping people off by selling solar panels.
