Select the plus sign in the rows below for more information about each specification. Contact FEMP for assistance or questions. The Renewable Energy Ready Home (RERH) specifications were developed by the U. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to assist builders in designing and constructing homes equipped with a set of features that make the installation of solar energy systems after the completion of the home's. Still, installation takes more than finding an open spot. The panels can't do their job the way they're supposed to. Whether you're installing panels on a roof, the ground, or a specialized structure, choosing the right solar panel supports is crucial for durability, efficiency, and safety. A typical residential photovoltaic panel.
